Disclaimer This Digitally Accelerated Standardized Housing website (the “DASH Website”) and the design tools made available to you through the DASH Website (the “Design Tools”) are only intended as a guide and are provided for general information only.

As a condition of using the DASH Website and the Design Tools you acknowledge and agree that the British Columbia Housing Management Commission (“BC Housing”) and Metro Vancouver, Scius Advisory Inc., Iredale Architecture, Archistar Pty Ltd., 9521-7022 Québec Inc. (Aliova), Kope AI, BIM One Inc., Timber Engineering, and other developers of the DASH Website and Design Tools (collectively the “Contributors”) make no representations and extend no warranties of any kind, either express or implied regarding the DASH Website and Design Tools.

In particular, there are no express or implied warranties of merchantability or fitness of the DASH Website or the Design Tools for a particular purpose, or that the use of the DASH Website or Design Tools will not infringe any patent, copyright, trademark or other rights, or any other express or implied warranties.

Without limiting the foregoing, you acknowledge that BC Housing and the Contributors assume no liability of any kind for any damage, injury, loss, expense, including product liability, loss of profits, or for special, indirect, consequential, incidental or punitive damages, however caused and regardless of the theory of liability, arising out of, related to, or resulting from, your use of the DASH Website or the Design Tools, including any planning, design, products, building techniques, kit of parts, or practices that you develop, design, create, buy, construct or use based on your use of the DASH Website or Design Tools.

You further acknowledge and understand that the views expressed in the DASH Website do not necessarily represent those of BC Housing or any individual Contributor, and you understand that development rules, zoning, building codes, building products and construction practices change over time.

You must therefore not rely on the DASH Website or the Design Tools to provide up-to-date information or advice on development rules, zoning, building codes, building products or construction practices, and are advised to always consult up-to-date development rules, zoning, building codes and the applicable architectural, engineering and construction standards before planning or undertaking a design or construction project.

You are also advised to always consult the manufacturer's specifications and instructions for the use of construction products, including any prefabricated or preassembled products, and to speak with and retain consultants with appropriate architectural and/or engineering qualifications, and to consult appropriate municipal and other authorities, regarding issues of planning, zoning, design and construction practices.

In particular you understand that use of the DASH Website and the Design Tools does not guarantee compliance with any applicable federal, provincial, regional district, municipal or indigenous government development rules or zoning regulations, or any provisions of the British Columbia Building Code, the Vancouver Building By-law or any other building codes or building regulations.

The DASH Website and Design Tools do not endorse any product or building system.
